Dear Susan,

Thank you for your letter. I liked reading about the holidays in your country. I want to tell you about Eid Al Fitr.

The celebrations last three days. We start the day early in the morning. We go to the mosque and pray. Then, my family visits my grandparents. We talk, play games, and sometimes go to the park. We eat lots of food. My mother, grandmother, and aunt spend all week preparing it. I love the sweets my grandmother makes for the celebration. After lunch, we go visit more family. We have a great time.

Your friend,

Zainab

Read the text. Answer the questions.

My name is Ahmed. My family lives in Dubai. My uncle, aunt, and cousins live in Abu Dhabi. Every year in December, we usually go camping in the desert. Last year, we couldn't go camping. I was very unhappy until my dad said we would go to Abu Dhabi.

We visited my grandfather and grandmother. My grandfather is very kind and my grandmother is very funny.

We visited the most interesting museum in Abu Dhabi. There were old books and pictures of Abu Dhabi from long ago. We saw a few books about desert animals like Arabian wolves, camels, and scorpions. I don't like scorpions. I had a lot of fun.

Desert animals

Deserts are the driest places on Earth. It may seem like nothing can live in a desert. But most deserts are home to many plants and animals. Two animals that live in deserts are jerboas and oryxes.

Jerboas

Jerboas live in the deserts of Africa and Asia. They sleep underground during the day and come out at night. They don't drink water. They get moisture from the food they eat. Jerboas have long legs to keep their bodies cool. They don't walk, they hop!

Oryx

Oryxes live in the Arabian Peninsula. They dig a shallow hole to keep cool during the day and rest. They move around at night. The oryx eats roots, herbs and fruit. They don't drink water. The oryx can cool the blood in its brain by breathing through the nose. They only sweat when the temperature reaches 46 degrees.

Answer the questions below:

1. The oryx is _____ than the jerboa.
a) bigger b) biggest c) big

2. How are the jerboa and oryx alike?

- a) They both eat fruit.
- b) They both get moisture from food.
- c) They both sleep underground.

3. Which animal lives in the Arabian Peninsula?

- a) jerboa
- b) oryx
- c) both the jerboa and oryx

4. Complete the sentence:
